

Holiday Club Manager

Schools Out is looking for a Manager for their Holiday Club in St Ives (Cambridgeshire). The role involves working 8am-6pm five days per week for twelve weeks of the year (all school holidays in line with Cambridgeshire school holiday dates, exclusive of bank holidays). There is the potential for additional work in one of our out of school clubs and/or nurseries during term time if you desire.

The role will involve leading and developing the team to ensure a fun and varied all round experience for the children in the club. There is a strong emphasis on sports and arts, providing an ideal opportunity for a creative and energetic childcare professional.

What's required?

- A Play Work qualification or childcare qualification would be ideal but is not essential
- Experience of working with children in a role such as, nursery assistant, teaching assistant, brownie/guide/cub/scout leader, sports instructor, holiday/out of school club assistant, preschool, Lunch time supervisor, teacher, etc.
- A committed personality with a passion for working with children and a good understanding of child development.
- Enthusiasm and ability to engage in all manner of activities, including swimming, football and nerf wars!

If this sounds like an opportunity you do not want to miss, please contact us today.
